Subject: Cyber Security Awareness Seminar October 10, 2012

National Cyber Security Awareness Month

Cyber Security Awareness Seminar

Sponsored by the Enterprise Security Board and ITD Security Office

Location: Massachusetts State House Garner Auditorium.

Date & Time: Wednesday October 10, 2012 9:00am to 3:15pm

Today, virtually every facet of our professional and personal lives is touched by technology. That's why keeping our information and systems safe is of critical importance to more than IT folks alone.

The speakers will highlight today's trends in cyber security, the importance of business and technology leaders working together to ensure the ongoing security of our information, and how we can best manage our cyber security priorities.

The event will focus on cyber security, with a particular focus on what that means for public sector agencies. While there will be some discussion of security-related technology, the presentations will not be technology-focused.

Speakers at the event will include but not limited to:

- Thomas Ralph Assistant Attorney General Thomas Ralph, Chief of the Attorney General's Cyber Crime Division
- Mike Liking, DHS, National Cyber Security Division Cyber Security Evaluations
- Andrew Bonilla member of Verizon's Investigative Response
- Kevin Burns Commonwealth Chief Security Officer
- Representative from MS-ISAC
- Key Commonwealth technology leaders, ,
- And Many others

Logistical notes:

- Please invite anyone from your agency or staff who may be interested; all are welcome to help promote National Cyber Security Awareness Month
- Sign in at the Gardner Auditorium located at the State House from 8:15 – 8:50am
- Please note that food and drinks are not allowed in the Gardner Auditorium
